

STEVEN J. LORRENCE

3242 South Lexis Ave
6 Milwaukee, WI 53208
555-782-4322 (home)
sjlorrence@gmail.com

Experience

2002-Present

POLYMER RESEARCH

Milwaukee, WI

General Manager

- Managed research-oriented polymer start-up through product design and development; oversaw sales/marketing initiatives of several patented products for footwear and medical markets
- Created and supervised team of 25 including 11 professional engineers and researchers; team has produced 14 different projects to date, accounting for $13 million in revenue
- Developed “C-Tech” patented custom forming system for footwear – licensed to global footwear manufacturer
- Established joint venture in Dominican Republic to integrate C-Tech into customer’s production line
- Increased sales 500% in two years

2002-Present

MULTI-SPORT HELMET

Milwaukee, WI

Technical Director

- Orchestrated product design, testing, and production of multi-sport protective helmets for start-up company
- Advised President on general management issues and assisted with marketing and sales efforts
- Coached team through 15-month design-to-production cycle of first product; ultimately captured 5% of $130 million market

1998-2002

BOSTON MARINA

Boston, MA

General Manager

- Led management team and designed organizational structure for newest and largest marina in Milwaukee area, while simultaneously managing phase one construction; coordinated 500 boats with $2 million in annual revenue
- Hired, trained, and reviewed six department managers and over 50 full and part time employees
- Maintained optimum occupancy while expanding capacity 800%
- Served as general contractor during construction of utilities, docks, buildings, and landscaping

Project Engineer

- Hired and supervised consulting engineers, architects, and contractors for $6 million phase one design and construction of marina on undeveloped site; worked directly with owner and functioned as General Contractor
- Directed $4 million construction of harbor, site, buildings, docks, and utilities
- Personally designed and contracted for fabrication and installation of 300 foot floating breakwater

1998-2002

MACKIN COMPANY

Milwaukee, WI

Project Leader, R&D Technician

- Conducted research and development for entrepreneur, including composite mountain bicycle and automotive projects
- Designed valve cover/oil baffle that became standard equipment in over 1 million Chrysler automobiles

Education

2004-2006

COWELL UNIVERSITY

Chicago, IL

- Bachelor of Arts, Sociology and Anthropology
- Graduated Cum Laude
- Captain of 4 intramural teams